Housing Policy Debate

Housing Policy Debate is published quarterly by the Office of Housing Research. The goal of this publication is to stimulate thoughtful and insightful discussion on a broad range of housing issues, including housing policy, home mortgage finance, and international housing finance.

Housing Policy Debate is organized in three sections: Forum, Articles, and Current Issues. All articles appearing in the Forum and Articles sections have undergone a double-blind review by members of the Office of Housing Research Advisory Board and other respected scholars. The Forum section also features Comments written by leading experts in the field. Finally, the Current Issues section presents more policy discussions of current issues in housing and finance. Housing Policy Debate also publishes articles presented at the Fannie Mae Annual Housing Conference.

Appropriate manuscripts are invited and should be submitted to:

James H. Carr
Vice President for Housing Research
Fannie Mae
3900 Wisconsin Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20016-2899

Manuscripts should not be under consideration for publication elsewhere.
